Opera House to night.
The "Naughty Girl" to-night at the Opera House.

Parties who go to the Chariton to get hickory nuts, get left.

Largest line of kid gloves in the city at the Ladies Bazar.

The hog market has had another decline of 50 cts on the hundred.

The market for oats is a little stronger this week and they sell readily at 20 cts. per bushel.

Simpson Ely spent a few days in Macon county, this week assisting J. W. Davis in a meeting.

Five young men were added to the Christian Church in Kirksville last Sunday.

The poultry business was lively at Greentop last Saturday. W. B. Reynolds paid out $311.87 for turkeys and chickens.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away from town, please notify us. We will esteem it a special favor.

It is here and on the streets. Have you seen it? The beautiful and only complete Delivery wagon in the city.

Largest line Millinery goods in North Missouri, at wholesale & retail at the Ladies Bazar.

Rev. C. M. Davis, of St. Louis, will preach in Episcopal church, Sunday, Oct. 30th, morning and evening.

Toboggan caps in endless varieties, beautiful and cheap, the cheapest in the city at Mrs. C. E. Leech's.

Owing to one of our most rapid typists being sick, considerable matter of interest had to be laid over till next week.

D. R. Lucas, of Des Moines, Ia., will begin a protracted meeting in the Christian church to-morrow evening, which will continue some weeks.

Miss Stacy Porter, daughter of J. L. Porter, has been dangerously ill with typhoid fever for several days, but at this writing is improving.

Erving Herring drove a two year colt to town last Friday that tipped the beam at 1375 lbs. Can any one in the county beat it? If so bring on the colt.

A short trip to Greentop last Monday morning revealed the fact that, that live little town is doing a heavy business. W. B. Reynolds is receiving a large amount of grain, and is also having a heavy trade in general merchandise.

Every body should rejoice and be glad. The day has come when consumers can have their goods delivered in good order. The top wagon shelters the goods from the rain and the snow and the long fingers of the hungry boy. "Wait for the Wagon."

One of the new school buildings will be ready for occupancy by November 1st, the other about a month later. The public school will open November 1st but until the other building is completed the rooms will necessarily be in a crowded condition.

Montgomery & Bielby paid out for poultry in cash and goods, Friday and Saturday of last week and Monday of this, a little over $1300. We believe our farmers wives are making more clear money on poultry than their husbands are on cattle and hogs.

During the entertainment given by the Band boys next Tuesday evening, Mr. G. C. Cleveland will favor the audience with a choice "triple-tongue" Cornet solo the "Silver Stream Polka," assisted by full band; Don't miss this rare treat.

Mrs. Frank Spitzer, presented this office, yesterday, with a beautiful bouquet of pansies and sweet violets. At this season of the year these lovely flowers, reminders of the joyous spring time, come with an especial benediction. Thanks.

H. A. MILLER, with Coit & Co., dealers in paint, and painter's supplies, Chicago, made the GRAPHIC office a business call Friday.

SAMUEL RUSSELL, left for Moulton, Io., Monday morning and will spend two or three weeks in business connected with his ranch and attending to the fall sales.

R. A. HOLTON, of McDonough county, Ills., who has been visiting his nephew J. H. Holton, of this place, for the past six weeks, returned home Wednesday morning.

MISS BESSIE DUFFIELD, has accepted the position of head sales lady in one of the leading dry goods stores of Chillicothe, and left yesterday morning to take charge of her position.

Mrs. THOMAS EDMONDS, and sister, MISS MOLLIE WILKES, returned from a five week's sojourn at Castilian Springs Tenn., Thursday evening of last week.

Mr. S. V. Parks, of that energetic little town in Schuyler county, known as Energy, brought to this office, Monday a very fine sample of turnips, the heaviest weighing five pounds.

L. W. CAMPBELL, of Novinger, has for sale eight four-year-old steers that will average about 1400 lbs. He wants 3 cents per pound for them. There are about two car loads for sale in his immediate neighborhood.

J. W. PARCELLS and M. L. Billick went to Moulton, Io., Monday to visit the fine sheep ranch of Samuel Russell. They made a number of purchases, which will prove valuable additions to the fine herds which they already possess.

MR. J. H. NAPIER, who has been night operator at this point for some time left for Kansas City, Friday morning to answer a summons to a position on the Santa Fe. His place has been filled by Mr. B. N. Ochiltree, of Champaign, Ill., a jolly good fellow and our business men will find him very accommodating.

ROBERT CRENSHAW, arrived home Thursday morning, suffering severely from the fracture of the knee pan. He runs on one of the fast stock trains of the Atchison and Topeka. Last Tuesday morning the engine, while going at full speed parted its coupling. This set every air brake on the train, which stopped the caboose so suddenly that he was thrown violently the entire length of the car, and striking the stove resulted in the above injury. He will be disabled for some time.

In the advertisement of C. W. Worman, which appeared in GRAPHIC of last week and the week previous, chickens were quoted at 5cts, per pound. They should have been quoted at 4cts. The mistake was ours and was one of those unaccountable errors that go to make the printer's life unhappy.

Dwarf broom corn is now worth $135 per ton in the market. This variety is easily grown, yields well and is little trouble. How easily our farmer boys could make a large amount of extra money by planting two or three acres and taking care of it. It is always ready sale.

W. B. Imbler has again opened his broom factory in Kirksville. When his factory was burned three or four years ago, his brooms had gained quite a reputation, and now before he has his machinery in place orders are coming in for brooms. This revives an other industry in Kirksville, which in time, will give employment to several hands.

Friday night Oct. 21st, Miss Lucia B. Griffin, supported by the best home talent in the city of Kirksville, will present the charming new and original comedy, "Dolly Muggins, The Naughty Girl," written especially to display Miss Griffin's talent as an impersonator.

The cast of characters is especially good, and the music will be the best the city affords.

BOOTS AND SHOES

We call especial attention to our very large line of Boots and Shoes—None better in the west—that are now ready for inspection by the public. Our Oil Grain Boots are the best ever seen for long and hard wear. Our Grain, Calf, Kid, Kangaroo, and Dongola Shoes for Men and Women give the fullest satisfaction to the wearer. On Boots and Shoes we can safely promise customers a saving of at least 10 per cent.

CLOTHING CLOTHING,

Having closed out 1000 Suits of Staple Clothing from a Manufacturing establishment at much less than cost to manufacture the same, we are enabled to save customers from $2 to $10 on a suit. We have the largest line of Clothing in Kirksville. OUR OVERCOATS ARE SUPERB—Our $2.50 and $3.00 Overcoats are equal to any that are being sold at much higher price. Our $5.00 Overcoat is a daisy. Our $7.50 one is immense. Our $10 coat knocks the persimmons every time. In boys' and children's clothing we undersell everybody.

UNDERWEAR,

A Special buyer in the underwear department has given us the best selected stock of Men's, Women's and Children's Underwear—Embracing Red Wool Garments, Camels Hair Suits, Fine Merino goods, mixed goods, etc. All at lower prices than heretofore offered. We invite special attention to this department.

FLANNELS, JANES, YARNS ETC.

Everything calculated to keep the body warm and comfortable and such as Janes, Cassimers, Flannels, Linsey, Cotton Flannels, etc., we have in full and complete stock. We make a specialty of substantial, solid, every day goods for good services and at low prices, and we can please all and benefit them if they will examine same.

DRESS GOODS

Our Dress Goods Department cannot be Excelled. Our very Popular All Wool Tricots at only 50 cents per yard are bargains never before offered in Kirksville. Black and all leading shades, Plaids, Stripes and Figured fabrics of all qualities. Full lines of Cashmires from 25 cents to $1.00 per yard. Every thing in the Dress Goods line, suitable for the trade!

CLOAKS AND WRAPS

We show a Splendid Line of Cloaks and Wraps ranging in price from $2.50 to $25. We have a lot of genuine bargains in this line. Our $5 Newmarket is a stunner. Our wraps are of the latest patterns. Our Jackets just from the manufacturer. Don't fail to price these garments before buying.

NOVELTIES AND NOTIONS

And we have many hundreds
